Christmas at the Farm is a magical experience for our visitors. It is a pre-booked experience. It includes animals, activities, arts and crafts and of course Father Christmas.

The Elf team will be there to look after all the guests, meet and greet and ensure that everyone is having a magical time.

You will guide small groups around the event, in a timely fashion, ensuring an enjoyable and exciting experience for everyone.

If you feel you are charismatic, outgoing, have great customer service skills, have a love of all things Christmas and take pride in creating a magical experience for customers then please get in touch.

Acting or performing experience preferred. Own transport is essential.

Please send your CV and a brief covering note explaining why you are interested to vanessa@hogshawfarm.co.uk
